

RESOLUTION NO. 1140

A RESOLUTION ENCOURAGING WILSONVILLE BUSINESSES TO HAVE APPROPRIATE FACILITIES FOR BICYCLE PARKING AVAILABLE AT THEIR ESTABLISHMENTS.

WHEREAS, the City of Wilsonville wishes to move aggressively to reduce vehicle miles traveled, in compliance with the Oregon Transportation Planning Rule; and

WHEREAS, bicycles can and should provide a sensible alternative to automobiles in helping the City achieve that goal; and

WHEREAS, the City has adopted an award-winning Bicycle/Pedestrian Master Plan that aims to connect all sections of Wilsonville with a comprehensive system of on-street and off-street bike paths; and

WHEREAS, the provision of safe and secure bicycle parking facilities is a key element in encouraging people to use their bicycles more and their automobiles less; and

WHEREAS, such facilities are especially appropriate at business establishments;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of Wilsonville does hereby encourage all businesses in the city to install and maintain bicycle parking facilities and to call upon the assistance of the city in the appropriate design and location of such facilities, and does hereby ask the city manager to voluntarily set an example for the business community by installing bike racks at City Hall and the Community Development Annex.

ADOPTED by the Wilsonville City Council at a regular meeting thereof the 17th day of October, 1994, and filed with the Wilsonville City Recorder this same date.
