Instructions and Application for property Tax Exemption For Very Low-Income Housing Held by Charitable, Nonprofit Organizations

What is It?

The 1985 Oregon legislature authorized a property tax exemption for low-income housing held by charitable, non-profit organizations.¹ The tax exemption is intended to benefit low-income renters and is available for qualifying property located within the City of Wilsonville.

Who is Eligible?

- Charitable, non-profit organizations that provide housing to low-income persons² are eligible.
- The organization must be certified by the Internal Revenue Services as 501(c) (3) or (4).
- Organizations must own or have a leasehold interest in the property or participate in a partnership so long as the non-profit organization is responsible for the day-to-day management of the property. The site must be occupy-able during the upcoming tax year by income eligible households, although vacant land intended to be developed as low-income housing is eligible for the exemption provided under this program.
- Applicants who are leaseholders must have a sign leasehold agreement by the April 1st application deadline. Applicants may also apply for the exemption for properties expected to be acquired by July 1 of the tax year but the application form must be submitted by the February th deadline.

Note: You may already be exempted from taxation under the statutory provision for qualifying benevolent, charitable and scientific institutions or for nonprofit organizations providing housing and care to the elderly. These two programs are administered by Clackamas County.

If you qualify for these other programs, please do not complete this application. Questions concerning these exemptions should be directed to the Clackamas County Division of Assessment and Taxation at 503-655-8671

What is Eligible?

Only the residential portion of a property located within the City of Wilsonville, which is used to house low-income people, is eligible for a property tax exemption. For example, the commercial space in a mixed-use building would not be eligible for tax exemption. Application for the exemption must be made annually.

Who Administers the Program?

The City of Wilsonville's Finance Department administers this program. Please call Keith Katko, Assistant Finance Director at (503) 570-1516 if you have questions.

1. A complete application – complete Section A and E for your organization. Complete Sections B, C, and D for each building for which a property tax exemption is being requested.
2. All applications must be signed and notarized – Section E is required to be notarized for each organization and application only, not for each building.
